

SoulShift - Educational Q&A Platform

General Questions

Practice Questions

Q1. Which plant structure is primarily responsible for the uptake of water and minerals?

- A. Leaves
- B. Stems
- C. Roots
- D. Flowers

Solution: Roots are responsible for the uptake of water and minerals from the soil.

Q2. Which of the following processes is essential for the formation of seedless fruits?

- A. Pollination
- B. Fertilization
- C. Parthenocarpy
- D. Germination

Solution: Parthenocarpy is the process that leads to the development of seedless fruits without fertilization.

